

O'Dea High School
Seattle, Washington
Website accessed 10/28/12

<http://www.odea.org/academics/faculty-staff-bios/>

Faculty & Staff Bios

Administrative Team

Br. Karl Walczak

Br. Karl J. Walczak was appointed as Principal of O'Dea High School in 2011 by Archbishop Sartain and the O'Dea High School Board of Directors. In addition to being the school Principal, Br. Walczak will be the coordinator of both parent clubs. He earned a MA in French from the University of Notre Dame and a MA in School Administration from the University of San Francisco. Brother has ministered in various teaching, activity moderating, and administrative positions in several Christian Brother schools in Illinois, California, and Hawaii. Br. Walczak was the Principal of Damien High School in Honolulu for ten years and the President of Brother Rice High School in Chicago for twelve years. Brother Walczak enjoys representing Catholic schools and has served on several regional and national education committees and boards. In his free time he enjoys air travel. He is a commercial aviation fanatic and participates in online commercial aviation business simulation scenarios.